Flows on snarks induced by perfect matching covers

Roman Nedela

Integer flows present a useful technique in investigation of snarks, in particular, in investigation of Berge-Fulkerson and Fan-Raspaud conjectures. We show how to derive them and present few applications.