

The width of projective quadrangulations

ABSTRACT

In this talk I will introduce two measures of “local planarity” of non-planar graphs embedded in a surface, called the edge-width and the face-width. I will present sharp upper bounds on the edge- and face-width of projective quadrangulations, and discuss some related questions.

Joint work with Louis Esperet.